

Schedule of Events

Time	Rendezvous B	Rendezvous A	Rendezvous C
9:00am	Doors open and the trivia contest begins (Rendezvous A)
			ASPRS Student Chapter Track
9:15am	Open House- GIS Demonstrations and exhibits	Brian Kienle - Science and Use of Oblique Imagery in GIS	Darci Hanson - Assessing Sage-grouse habitat in the Big Desert Area of SE Idaho using High Resolution Satellite Imagery
9:45am		Sylvio Mannel - Reference Data for Forest/Rangeland Classifications	Jiri Kadlec - Integrating Space and Time in GIS
10:15am		BREAK	BREAK
10:30am		Bryant Ralston - GeoDesign and ESRI Innovation Updates	Ted Dunsford - Introducing MapWindow 6.0
11:00am		Gail Ewart and Eric Smith - Data Stewardship is a Team Effort	Mansoor Raza - Municipal Applications of Remote Sensing
12:30pm	Annual Chili Cook-Off! and awards presentation
1:45pm	Open House- GIS Demonstrations and exhibits	Robin Pattillo - GIS and the Health Professions	Carole Moore - Environmental outreach: 3D visual tools using LiDAR and other scientific data
2:15pm		BREAK SE Idaho GIS Users' Meeting	BREAK
2:30pm		Education needs and Geospatial infrastructure priorities for Idaho	(to be determined)
3:00pm		The role of RRC's in ISDI and Framework data layers	(to be determined)
3:30pm	Raffle drawing
4:00pm	Wrap-up and closing

To participate in the Chili cook-off, contact Keith T. Weber to register your chili entry before 4pm on November 16th.

Voting closes at 1:15pm and the awards ceremony begins at 1:30pm.

All activities are free and open to the public. No pre-registration required except to enter the chili cook-off.